

2nd Day Report of INDEE – Kuala Lumpur

26th September 2008, Kuala Lumpur: 2nd day of the ongoing Indian Engineering Exhibition, INDEE in Kuala Lumpur witnessed large footfall not only from the Malaysian business community as well as countries like Singapore and also Iran. All the exhibitors are hopeful to generate good number of enquiries by the time exhibition ends on 27th September 2008.

In conjunction with the exhibition, a special Malaysia-India Investment Seminar was held to explore business and investment opportunities in Malaysia which was well attended by eminent economists and finance specialists while witnessing a very positive and fruitful interaction in the fields of economic growth, investments and policy related issues. Both Malaysia and India highlighted high potential areas for attracting foreign direct investment. While India stressed on investment opportunities in infrastructure and engineering sector, Malaysia highlighted newer areas and states like Penang and Selangor which are being promoted as emerging states for new investments in the country.

Several business to business meetings took place during the day where exhibitors were introduced with specific buyers for their products. Most of the exhibitors are hopeful of fruitful outcome from these meetings.

India's High Commissioner to Malaysia, HE Mr Ashok K Kantha also visited the exhibition during the day and interacted with all the exhibitors.
